Mayor Bruggeman recognized Council Member Hart for her great accomplishment of earning a Certificate of Achievement for participation in the Texas Municipal League Institute program. She earned the appropriate number of continuing education units and will be recognized at an upcoming TML-TAMCC Elected Officials' Conference in February.

The Mayor said that, sadly today, citizens often see and hear negative news reports. He said he wanted to focus on positive happenings in both Texarkana through "acts of kindness". The Mayor then shared three recent acts of kindness performed by everyday citizens in the community.

First, Charles Parks was recognized for helping an elderly citizen safely cross the street in Texarkana, Arkansas. Mr. Parks humbly said it's what he's "all about". Second, a citizen shared with the Texarkana Gazette that while at the automotive counter at Wal-Mart on New Boston Road, the total was more than expected. A citizen in line behind him, offered a $20 bill so he could pay for and finish his purchase. Third, another citizen shared with the Texarkana Gazette that when he blew a tire on Summerhill Road, Steve Raffaelli stopped and called someone to come and fix the flat. Mr. Raffaelli paid for the repair and the citizen was shortly on his way. In each instance, a simple act of kindness made someone's day better.

An act of kindness can be shown in many different ways. All people have within their reach the ability to do a small act of kindness for another person each day.

On Friday, January 25th, the Texarkana Chamber of Commerce recognized and presented the well-deserved C.E. Palmer Award to Cary Patterson. Mr. Patterson was recognized for his continuous acts of kindness and outstanding service to the Texarkana community.

Special Proclamation Presentation

Jeff Lewis shared with council that both Supreme Courts from the State of Arkansas and the State of Texas will meet on January 30th and January 31st in Texarkana, this being a first meeting of its kind for the community. Several activities for both justices will take place during the two-day visit to include a group photo to be taken on the state line at Photographer's Island on Wednesday, January 30th.

Mayor Bruggeman read the proclamation "Justice on the Line" in honor of this historic visit of the judicial administration representing both states.
